VT's Arabic program will offer a study abroad program in Oman in Summer 2024 in the city of Nizwa. The program will provide selected students with a scholarship offering full funding for program tuition/fees, lodging, meals, travel to/from the study location, books, insurance, and visa.

All ROTC students at VT and other universities who have completed at least 2 semesters (or 1 year) of Arabic are invited to apply for a Project GO scholarship.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply, please go to: rotcprojectgo.org

Only completed and submitted student applications to the national Project GO central application system will be considered for a Project GO scholarship.
